Places to go...to feed both body and soul

Things to see...just off the beaten track

POST HYPNOTIC

This major show is possibly the most visually unnerving and demanding exhibition since the giddy days of Op Art. Fifty paintings by twenty-eight international artists show the painstaking precision of their work. The forceful nature of the paintings, 'Wanted' by Karin Davie for example (4), pushes the limits of normal vision.

The Contemporary Arts Center, 115 East Fifth Street, Cincinnati, Ohio. Until 7th November.

MISSION

Welcomed by specialist media as an important showcase for the wealth of Britain's current design talent, this two-storey selling gallery (5) is one of the most exciting new ventures to open in London. In famous and fashionable Notting Hill, Mission offers specialised exhibitions and an impressive range of desirables to buy.

45 Hereford Road, London, W2.

SAUL FLETCHER PHOTO EXHIBITION

Collectors of Saul Fletcher's work would dearly love to keep it secret but in spite of their best efforts his photographs are now much sought-after (6). His tiny, brooding colour pictures, with an intense surreal quality, are heart-stoppingly beautiful. Tellingly, famous photographer Mario Testino owns several of Fletcher's prints.

Maximilian Verlag, Maximilianstrasse 14, 80539 Munich. 10th September to 9th October.
